Gordon Flesch Charitable Foundation
Provides Strength to Families in Need

MADISON, Wis. (July 8, 2008) – The Gordon Flesch Charitable Foundation donated $5,000 to the Central Community House (CCH) on July 2. The donation will help fund services designed to develop stronger families and build a sense of community in the Columbus, Ohio area.

Since 1935, CCH has served as a private non-profit settlement house offering a variety of programs designed to strengthen family, neighborhood and community life. In 2007, CCH served more than 6,800 individuals. As the only settlement house in the area, CCH functions as a multi-service community center providing activities such as tutoring, after school child care, parenting classes and unemployment training.

“For families in need, CCH serves as a bridge of transition between dependency and self-sufficiency,” said Pam McCarthy, executive director for CCH. “With the donation from the Gordon Flesch Company, we will be able to continue to provide services that promote stronger children, stronger families and ultimately, a stronger community.”

Remaining true to the company vision to “serve the communities where we work and live,” the Gordon Flesch Charitable Foundation, Inc. has donated more than $800,000 to various charities and organizations in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Wisconsin since its inception in 2002. Each year, grants totaling $100,000 are awarded throughout the communities where the Gordon Flesch Company does business.

“The creation of the Charitable Foundation formalized a spirit of generosity that has been part of the Gordon Flesch Company culture since the beginning,” said Ann Myers, president of the Gordon Flesch Charitable Foundation. “It is a reflection of the company’s awareness that we make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give.”
